A GREAT AMERICAN SUCCESS STORY!

In 1995 Bond Arms was founded and incorporated in Texas by Greg Bond, long time tool & die maker and mechanical engineer. Greg totally redesigned the very outdated and dangerous derringer design and made it into a well designed modern classic with the addition of a trigger guard, rebounding and locking hammer, and spring loaded release lever.

In 2007, Gordon Bond, Greg's younger brother took over the business and focused on improved quality, manufacturing processes and unique variations of the classic design to develop it into what Bond Arms is recognized for today. Today Bond Arms looks for unique, fun and innovative designs to bring to market that have our personality like the BullPup semi-auto and the newly release Lever Gun the LVRB.

THE AFFORDABLE ROUGH SERIES

By doing minimal deburring and finishing of our current stainless steel parts, we found that we could actually build 4 Rough Series guns to 1 Satin Finished Premium gun. This provides substantial savings on producing the Rough Series guns that we then pass on to (You) the consumer! This Super Affordable gun has become extremely popular as Bond's "Tackle Box" gun that people can enjoy and not worry about getting scratched or beat up.

ULTRA-COMPACT 9MM

The Bond Arms BullPup is the World's most revolutionary design since the inception of the modern semi-automatic handgun. Utilizing a rotating, locked breech mechanism, the BullPup generates superior speed and accuracy making it the smallest, most powerful, 9mm of its size. Due to a unique, reverse feed design, it is equipped with a 3.35-inch barrel and has an overall length of 5.1 inches. With a comfortable weight of 18.5 ounces, DAO(double action only) trigger, and minimal overall profile, the BullPup is an ideal concealed carry handgun. Don't just take our word for it, here is what others are saying about it.

"I'm impressed with this little gun (Bond Arms Bullpup). It will be a nice deep cover, easy to conceal and accurate to shoot pistol."

KEN CAMPBELL - COO OF GUN SITE ACADEMY

"This gun is exceptionally compact, good looking, accurate, fun to shoot, and utterly reliable..."

B. GIL HORMAN, AMERICAN RIFLEMAN

"...if you are ready for something outside the ordinary, this pistol is an engineering marvel."

DUANE A. DAIKER, SHOOTING ILLUSTRATED

"I now have two Bond Arms BullPups. They are truly a joy to own and shoot. It is easy to conceal in my pocket, fun to shoot with little kick for a 9mm, accurate and exceptionally easy to rack."

JOHN, VALUED CUSTOMER

"I was floored by the impeccable craftsmanship of every detail. What a superb little pistol!"
